THEATRE.

Sole Lessee .. . W. HOLLAND, North Woolwich Gardens

MONDAY, OCT. 4th, and until further notice,

Special engagement of the eminent Tragedian

MR. W.

CRESWICK!

Who will make his first re-appearance in this country after an absence of three years, in JAMES SHERIDAN KNOWLES' Grand Classical Domestic Tragedy,

VIRGINIUS!

Mr. Creswick's reception and legitimate success throughout the Colonies have been unprecedented.

The hearty welcome that awaits this great artiste upon his re-appearance among his old friends has induced the management to spare no expense or trouble in placing this magnificent Play on the stage in the most complete manner; the cast will be exceptionally strong; the entire Scenery has been specially painted for this elaborate revival by Messrs. James Keith and G. Prodgers. The Costumes by Mr. W. C. Stinchcombe. The Incidental Music, new and original, composed and arranged for Mr. Creswick's production of "Virginus" by Mr. William Corri, will be performed by an augmented Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Sidney Davis.

The Tragedy will be produced under the personal direction of MR. CRESWICK, assisted by the Stage Manager, MR. HOWARD RUSSELL.

A New Introduction to the Play has been arranged by Mr. CRESWICK, from the Works of J. Sheridan Knowles.
